§DECLARATION OF ALFREDO BERNAL

1. "My name is Alfredo Bernal. I am currently incarcerated in the Dallas County Jail.
2. I arrived in the Dallas County Jail on May 31, 2007. I am here on a bench warrant related to my criminal conviction. I do not know how much longer I will be in the Dallas County Jail, but I expect it will be awhile.
3. I have subscribed to Prison Legal News since March 2007, when I was in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice's Stevenson Unit in Cuero, Texas. I had no problem receiving my copies of Prison Legal News before I came to Dallas County.
4. As soon as I arrived in the Dallas County Jail, I wrote a letter to Prison Legal News to tell them my address had changed. I asked them to mail my issues to the Dallas County Jail.

5. When I got here, other inmates told me you could not have magazines like Prison Legal News in the jail. I wrote a note to the jail to ask if this was true. I got a response from Officer Pettway. Officer Pettway told me inmates could not receive copies of Prison Legal News or any other magazines unless they were housed in single cells. I am not in a single cell, so I was not allowed to have Prison Legal News.
6. After getting the response from Officer Pettway, I wrote a grievance complaining my First Amendment rights were being violated because I was denied my copy of Prison Legal News. I wrote the first grievance around June 10, 2007. The jail did not respond to my grievance, so I wrote another one. The jail did not respond to the second grievance either, so I assumed the grievance was denied and appealed the denial of the grievance. During the time I spent writing the grievances, I was not allowed to have a copy of Prison Legal News.
7. I received a response to the appeal around the first week of September 2007. The response said I was allowed to have copies of Prison Legal News, but even though I asked Prison Legal News to send me another copy of the September 2007 issue, I still have not received it.
8. I, Alfredo Bernal, under the pains and penalties of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, swear I am capable of making this affidavit and that the foregoing statement is true and correct to the best of my knowledge."
